Am                                  Em      GM                                  DM
My sweet Maureen...                  girl of my dreams
Am                                  Em                                  GM                                  DM
How you bestir my heart...                  intimately
Am                                  Em      GM                                  DM
Wisp of a girl...                          woman who smiles
Am                                  Em                                  GM                                  DM
Speaks to me soothingly...                  feminine whites

Bm                                  C
And she's ever so sure
Bm                                  C
And she's never so sure
Bm                                  C                                  D
And she's always aware of herself

Am                                  Em      GM                                  DM
My sweet Maureen...                  girl of my dreams
Am                                  Em                                  GM                                  DM
How you bestir my heart...                  intimately
Am                                  Em      GM                                  DM
Lady in red...                                  soft in our bed
Am                                  Em                                  GM                                  DM
We lie in solitude...                          love in our heads

Bm C
And she's ever so sure
Bm C
And she's never so sure
Bm C D
And she's always aware of herself
